

Stony Brook University School of Medicine

Application for MD with Recognition in Humanities

Please submit four copies of a written application containing the following information. If appropriate and available, please submit examples of work you have done that would exemplify your relevant talents.

TITLE OF PROJECT:

QUESTION TO BE ADDRESSED: [A brief statement of the hypothesis, issue or question you hope to address.]

SIGNIFICANCE AND CONTEXT: [Why is this question important? Why is it timely? What is the history or intellectual context of the issue and how will your work amplify it

ABSTRACT: [Summarize your project. How do you propose to go about answering your question?]

SCHEDULE: [Propose a time line for your project. Are there milestones you expect to achieve along the way? If so, when?]

OUTCOME: What do you expect to produce at the end of your project? a paper, portfolio, video, curriculum, play,

RESOURCES: [What resources - laboratory, library, financial or human - will you need? If they are not readily available at Stony Brook, how do you intend to get them? Support for work done away from Stony Brook or absent close and regular contact with advisors will require special justification.]

YOUR BACKGROUND AND INTEREST: [What preparation, experience or expertise do you bring to this enterprise? If you need skills you don't yet have, how do you plan to acquire them? How does this project fit into your plans for future intellectual or personal development.

Please attach your curriculum vitae.

Student Signature _____

*I _____ (Medical School Advisor), and I _____ (Additional Advisor) approve and understand that I am obligated to support the project, verify time spent, and to be certain that the student has appropriate training, as prescribed by the University, HIPAA, in Right to Know, Use of Human Subjects (CORIHS), Animal Use, and Use of Radioactive Substances as appropriate. I agree to be present (or to send a suitable surrogate) at the annual poster session/Research Day in early May of this student's 4th year.